

Chairman Powel should delay the rule change vote and allow time to have a democratic debate about consequences of further concentration of ownership. The public has not had sufficient input in the formation of the proposed policy. Rules should benefit the PUBLIC, NOT private interests. Don't let our press be controlled by a monopoly.